

SOROSIS

TRADE MARK.

We have a broad, deep faith in this perfected shoe for women; your appreciation can only come when you know the "Sorosis" shoe. When you've worn it. Before the reorganization of the "Sorosis" factory the price everywhere for this famous shoe was $5. The leather qualities are the same today as they were then. Profits are smaller but the increased sales of "Sorosis" reach far above any shoe made in this country or Europe. Ladies of this city are being convinced every day, not by what we say, but by comparison with other makes. The style and finish of "Sorosis" compares and only compares, with the $5 and $6 shoes made by the best manufacturers. Look at the style of toe, examine the linings and workmanship. Conviction cannot help being intense and strong when you give the "Sorosis" an honest comparison and test.

Experienced fitters will give you every attention in our Shoe Department. All Styles $3.50 a pair. All Sizes. All Leathers.

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Honesdale, June 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mumford, of Starbuck, Pa., spent Saturday and Sunday with Honesdale friends.
Rev. William H. Swift will leave on Friday for Amherst college to be absent one week.
Rev. C. L. Percy delivered the baccalaureate sermon before thirteen Honesdale high school graduates in the Methodist church Sunday evening. The teachers and board of control attended with the graduates in a body. The large auditorium was filled. Revs. G. A. Place and William H. Swift assisted in the services. Rev. Mr. Percy chose his text from the eighth Psalm and fourth verse, delivering an eloquent discourse.
A new time table takes effect on the Delaware and Hudson Honesdale branch today. The change in former trains is slight. A new Sunday train is added, arriving in Honesdale at 2.40 p. m. and leaving at 2.44 p. m.
Next Sunday morning Rev. Dr. Webb, secretary of the Evangelical Alliance, will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, and in the evening that of the Methodist church. The Baptist and Presbyterian congregations will join in a union service.
The Olympian Browns came to Honesdale on Saturday and put up a good game of ball on the silk mound ground. They were not equal to the Honesdale boys, but left a score of three to six in favor of Honesdale.
Editor E. A. Penniman is attending the Pennsylvania Editorial association at Cambridge Springs, Crawford county, Pa. He is accompanied by Mrs. Penniman, and Miss Anna Baker. The party will be absent two weeks. They will visit friends in Ohio before returning.
Some excitement was caused at the upper end of this street Saturday night by the disappearance of twelve year old Roscoe Bauman. He was last seen at 8 a. m. Saturday, but no trace of him was found until Sunday noon. It was learned that he had been seen in the direction of Beech Lake. His uncle, Mr. Weldner, followed the trail and overtook him at Catchesville, near Narrowsburg. He was returned to his home Sunday night. He was looking for work on a farm.
Mrs. John E. Richmond is seriously ill at her home on Second street.
An ice cream social will be held in the Sunday school room at the Methodist church Friday evening, June 20.
Some local damage was done by the severe thunder shower Sunday afternoon. Lightning struck the residence of John Ort on lower Second street, and shattered a door and one side of the house. At Bethany a bolt of lightning struck the steeple of the Methodist church, demolishing the steeple and causing other damage to the church. The gale of wind which accompanied the showers destroyed a large number of fruit trees at Bethany and vicinity.

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Forest City, June 16.—By the new Delaware and Hudson schedule, the morning north-bound train will now reach here at 8.15 instead of 7.30, as formerly. There is practically no change in other trains.
The council has appointed about forty

Spit Blood by the Mouthful.

Mr. G. W. Martin, of Moody, Mo., was troubled with a very severe cough and spit blood by the mouthful. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was recommended to him and he now says, "I think it to be the best cough medicine on earth for a small bottle of it cured me." If troubled with a cough why not take this remedy and get well? Many thousands of others have done so. For sale by all druggists.

place will be held Sunday evening, June 22, at which time a very pleasing program will be given.

The sawmill in Birchtown, recently burned, is to be rebuilt soon.
Many of the farmers in this vicinity are obliged to burn wood, as there is no coal to be had in the valley.
Fern Hall is open, and the manager, Mrs. C. E. Johnson, reports very encouraging prospects for the season of 1902. A goodly number of boarders have already arrived and many more are expected soon. Mrs. Johnson has made very extensive arrangements to accommodate her guests and all who visit Fern Hall this year.
W. L. Decker, our postmaster, made a business trip to Uniondale on Friday last.
Next Thursday, June 19, occurs our second district Sunday school conven-

DUNDAFF

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Dundaff, June 16.—The Children's day exercises at the Baptist church were very enjoyable. The church was decorated beautifully with flowers everywhere. Mrs. Arthur Perry and Miss Ora Hull sang very sweetly a duet, "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Prof. George Rogers, of Scranton, sang with E. E. Wells a duet, which was well received and showed vocal training. Willis L. Millard, superintendent of the school, gave a special recitation, which was very pleasing. The pastor of the church, Rev. W. H. Finken, gave a very interesting and instructive address on the work of the American Baptist Publication society. A collection was taken up for home missionary work. Mrs. O. T. Hull is organist for the school, and E. E. Wells, musical director.

LAKE WINOLA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Lake Winola, June 16.—Floral Sunday was observed at the Lake Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning.
Mr. George Dolph, of Clark's Summit, has returned home after a week's visit with Hiram Dolph.
Miss Helen Brenton, of Wilkes-Barre, is spending a week with the Misses Frear at the Winola.
A house party of fifteen are spending a week with Mr. G. P. Raser, of Philadelphia, who has two of the best cottages around Lake Winola.
Saturday evening, Mr. Raser had Openheim's full orchestra from Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Raser's guests enjoyed a delightful dance on the broad piazza which surrounds his cottage.
Several new cottages are being built at the present time, and it will take many more to supply the demand.
Among the cottage people now at the lake, we note the following: Mr. G. P. Raser, of Philadelphia; Mr. Wells, of Scranton; Mr. C. L. McMillan, Mr. Joel Brenton, of Pittston; Mr. Thomas C. Nattress, of Laffin; Mr. Charles H. Weiss and Mr. James Bowman, of Wilkes-Barre.
Mr. M. B. Cutter, superintendent of transportation of the Lehigh Valley railway, arrived at Falls station on his private car, with his family, Friday, June 13. Taking a conveyance, they were driven to the Winola Hotel, Lake Winola, and remained as guests of this popular house until Sunday afternoon, when they returned to the station and took their private car for South Bethlehem. Mr. Cutter and family are very much pleased with Lake Winola, and will return again in a few days to spend a longer time.
